Art In Solidarity with Palestinian Struggle

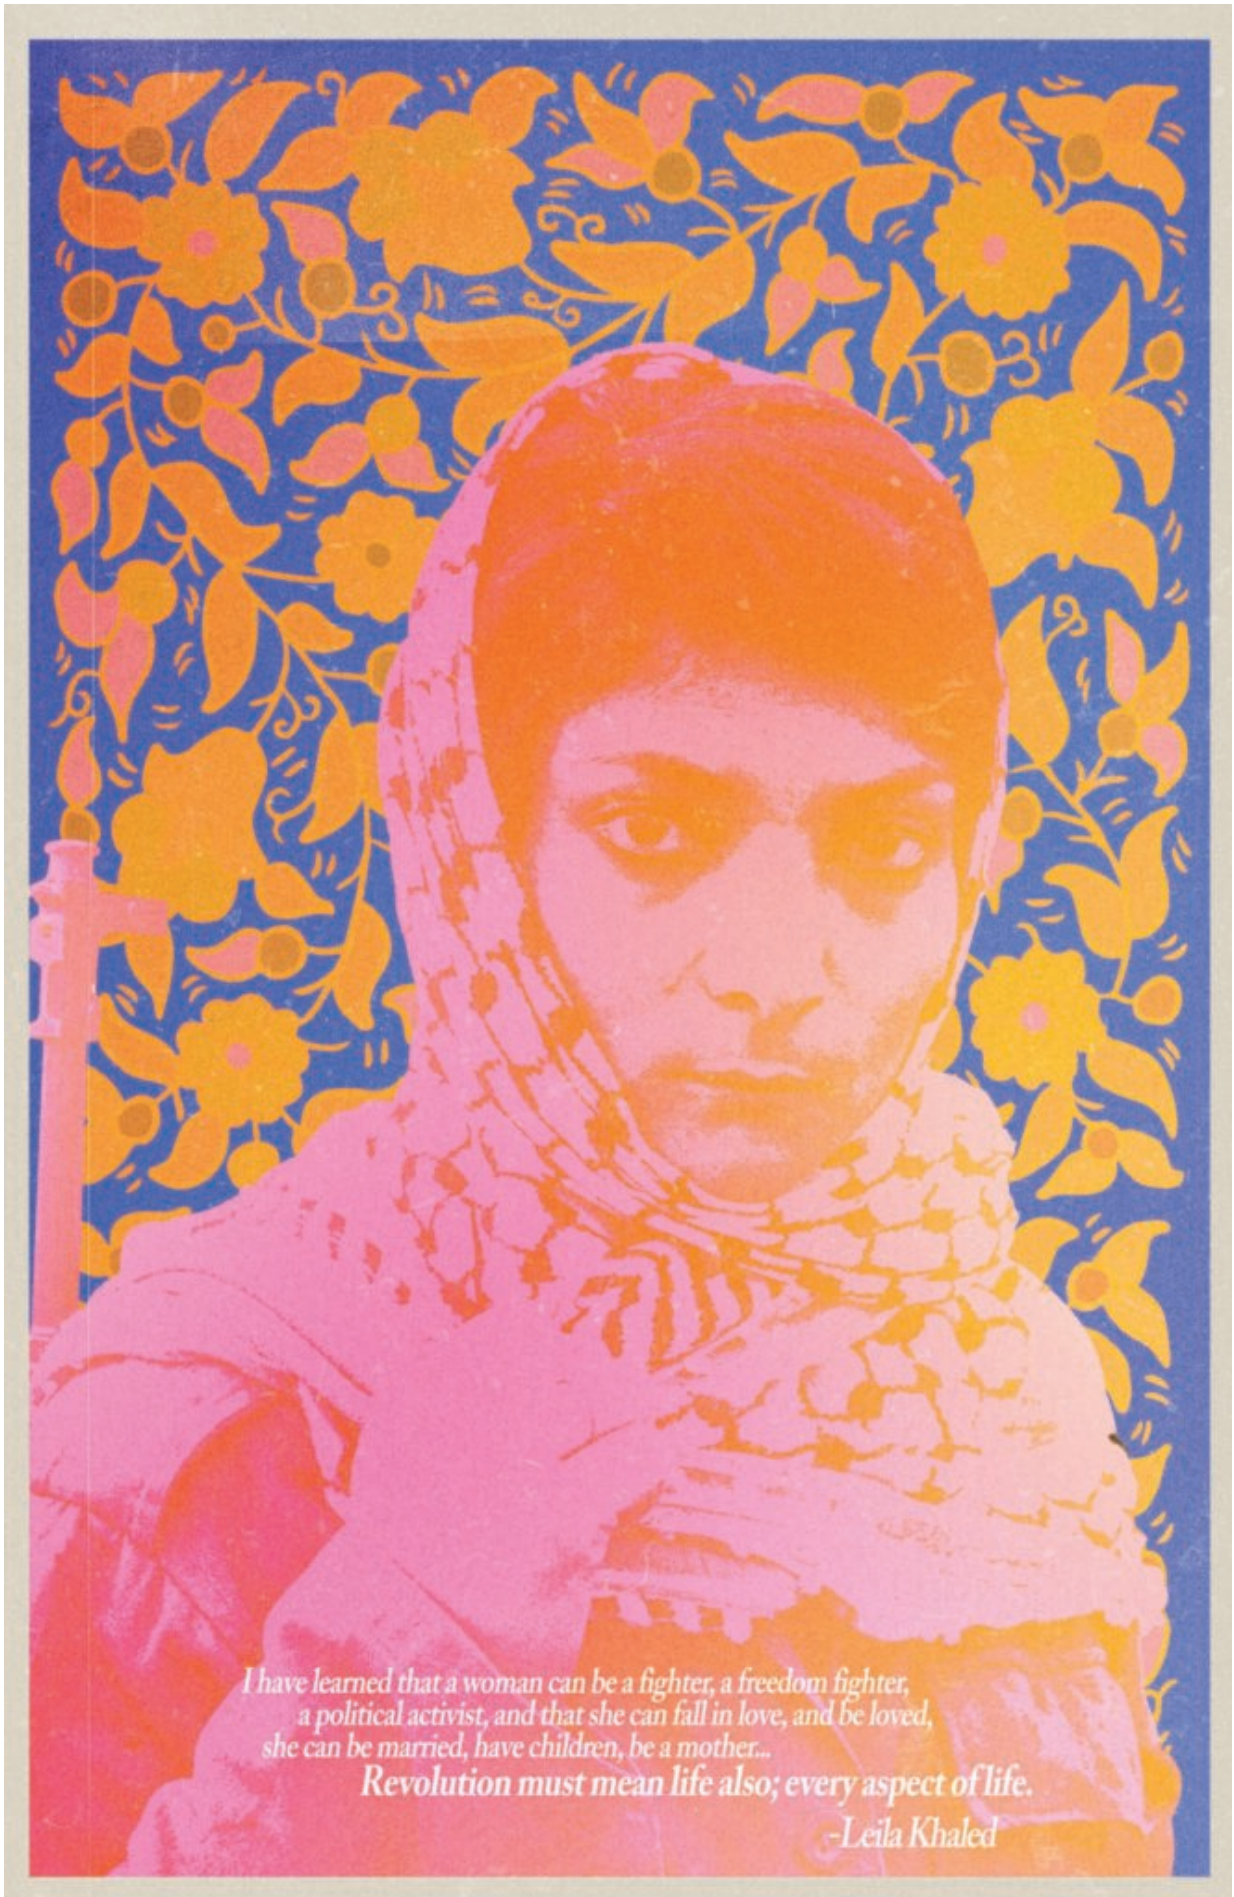

willianlopes · Monday, March 9th, 2026

The Palestinian struggle has confronted atrocities at a level impossible to express in a few numbers or words, but not only has the resistance movement continued to grow, it has also generated a tradition of art, literature, and culture that inspires and nourishes people in struggle against imperialism across the world.

In recognition of the 75 years since the Nakba, The International Peoples' Assembly urgently calls on artists across the world to make work that expresses our international solidarity with the strength, steadfastness, and resilience of the Palestinian struggle for the liberation of their land, the return of all displaced people, and the building of their independent, democratic and secular state.

As our campaign in solidarity with Palestine is ongoing, so is this art call

*I have learned that a woman can be a fighter, a freedom fighter, a political activist, and that she can fall in love, and be loved, she can be married, have children, be a mother...
